Suffolk County Legislature Presiding Officer William J. Lindsay joined the Bayport Heritage Association at the organization's First Bloom Tea on Friday, June 10th. This annual event celebrates the blooming of the Victorian roses in the Meadow Croft garden.

"I want to thank Bill and Jill Hansen for organizing this wonderful event," said Presiding Officer Lindsay. "I am also proud to honor Flo and Alden Olsson who are most deserving of recognition for all of their fine efforts."

"I personally want to thank you, Flo and Alden, for your many years of service to the Bayport Heritage Association," Lindsay added. "You have been dedicated since the organization's inception, and volunteers like you truly make a difference in our community. I wish you the very best."
